

FCC Permit Ban Sought for 'Rigged' TV Stations

TOP-FLIGHT ATTORNEY who spends much of his time in public work is Robert Daru, Village visitor who is staying with his wife, 14 briefcases, a dictation machine, and indefatigable energy at the Desert Skies Hotel. Daru is preparing to petition for FCC revocation or suspension of television broadcast licenses of stations involved in rigged quiz shows. N.Y. LAWYER SAYS HE'LL START ACTION

By PEYTON CANARY

Prominent New York attorney Robert Daru revealed in Palm Springs today that he is preparing to file petitions with the Federal Communications Commission "in the next few months" for suspension or revocation of the broadcast licenses of television stations which handled rigged quiz shows.

The attorney estimated the value of the licenses involved at approximately $5-billion dollars.

DARU ASSERTED current federal statutes give the FCC power to suspend or revoke licenses of any broadcasting firm it believes is not acting in the public interest. The FCC licensing power, the attorney said, is granted under the Congressional power to control interstate commerce, and the question involved in revocation would not involve freedom of speech or press.

Two More Cubans Executed Today

HAVANA (UPI) — Two Cubans convicted of organizing an armed rebel group against Premier Fidel Castro's government were shot by an army firing squad today. The executions were the first since last summer. In the first six months of this year Castro's revolutionary tribunals dealt out firing squad sentences to more than 600 opponents of the regime.

ANNUAL CHRISTMAS PARTY SET MONDAY AT CATHEDRAL CITY

CATHEDRAL CITY — Santa Claus parks the sleigh to go to Cathedral City at 6:30 p.m., Monday, on a fire truck. The colorful entry will signal the beginning of the annual Christmas party for pre-school through sixth grade children, at the Town Hall.

Sponsored by the Cathedral City Woman's Club, the party will feature Christmas stockings for each of the children from the immediate area within the listed age groups, club president Mrs. Thomas Brindle announced.

Sharp Setback

PD Chamber Bid For 111 Delayed

SACRAMENTO — Special consideration for a Palm Desert Chamber of Commerce request for state dedication of 20 feet of Highway 111 frontage was dealt a sharp setback at a meeting of the California Highway Commission this week.

A special Desert Sun correspondent learned that the Commission will not consider any Palm Desert request individually — but only as a part of the "entire plan for Highway 111 from Whitewater to Indio."

ACTUALLY, NO SUCH request has been received from the Palm Desert Chamber of Commerce in Sacramento, The Desert Sun was told.

"If the Palm Desert Chamber intends to reinstitute its campaign for widening Highway 111 through that community, it can relay its line of reasoning to State Highway Engineer J. C. Womack at his Sacramento office," one spokesman said.

Communications can also be ad-

"The power to license carries the right to revoke," Daru said. Daru announced his action would be taken either on behalf of clients allegedly damaged by rigged shows, or in the public interest.

HE SAID THAT the question of public interest in the cases depend on whether or not the station's executives were aware the quiz shows were rigged and therefore whether the stations acted in the public interest. He emphasized that the United

NATO Allies Map 'Peace Plan' But France Hedgy

PARIS (UPI) — The Western Big Four Allies reached quick agreement today on a peace plan linking world disarmament with a political settlement but a Franco-American quarrel over France's role in NATO still posed a major threat to success of the summit conference.

President Eisenhower and President Charles de Gaulle followed up the opening session of a three-day Western summit meeting with a face-to-face meeting on the problem which threatens to cripple the Western alliance at a time it can least afford the luxury of division.

Authoritative sources said Eisenhower would demand that France agree to cooperate in strengthening NATO before the Allies confront Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev at a spring East-West summit conference. Eisenhower, De Gaulle, Prime Minister Harold Macmillan of Britain and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer started immediately discussing the time and place of next spring's expected meeting with Khrushchev and the "maximum program" they will propose on disarmament, Berlin, Germany and East-West relations generally.

dressed to either Jacob Dekema or Clyde King, highway engineers for districts 11 and 8 respectively, and those would be forwarded to the Commission at Sacramento.

HIGHWAY 111 IS an unusual situation in that it lies within two such districts — rather than within one," the spokesman said. "Even the department has had some amount of difficulty in delineating where responsibility for certain phases rests."

But, the informant told The Desert Sun, since the legislature declared Highway 111 part of the state's freeway-expressway system earlier this year, it is now impossible to handle any phase of the roadway without consideration of the whole.

No action was taken at the Wednesday meeting of the Commission but, the spokesman said, some plan might be advanced at the body's January session.

A study of the best uses of Highway 111 at intermediate points is currently being conducted in the Desert area, the spokesman added.

Ike, De Gaulle Hold 'Frank' Discussion

President Calls For Integrated NATO Command

PARIS (UPI)—President Eisenhower and President Charles de Gaulle met for an hour today for a "very frank and friendly discussion" in which Eisenhower restated United States insistence on an integrated NATO command, particularly over Europe's air defense system.

The "showdown" meeting between the two presidents came after a two-hour opening session of the Big Four Western allies in which it was agreed that plans for world disarmament must be linked with an East-West political settlement.

THE MEETING between De Gaulle and Eisenhower was especially important in view of the former's refusal to permit integration of French forces under the NATO command. The French also were irritated because they believed the U.S. let them down when it abstained on a United Nations vote calling for peace negotiations in Algeria.

Eisenhower praised De Gaulle's peace efforts in Algeria but said there was little in the final resolution passed by the United Nations that even De Gaulle could find objectionable.

THE BIG FOUR Western leaders continued their discussions during a lunch given by De Gaulle. The lunch lasted a little over an hour and then Eisenhower left to drive to his residence. The three visiting chiefs of government returned to Elysee Palace in a pouring rain and started their afternoon session at 4:04 p.m.

Gary Asks Drug Investigation

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Rep. J. Vaughan Gary (D-Va.) accused the Eisenhower administration today of "unwillingness" to investigate alleged price-fixing and monopoly practices by big drug manufacturers.

Gary said this attitude by administration officials might be "a key factor" in the high price of certain medicines.

VOLUNTEERS AID CALIFORNIA Highway Patrol officers in removing Charles Pratt, 69, from his broadside automobile near the scales on Highway 99 shortly after 5:30 p.m., yesterday. ONE DEAD, THREE INJURED IN HIGHWAY 99 ACCIDENT

A Los Angeles man died last night shortly after his car was broadsided by a pickup truck on Highway 99 near its junction with Highway 111 at Whitewater.

California Highway Patrol officers at Banning said that Charles Pratt, 69, of Los Angeles, died before he reached a hospital.

PRATT'S 1955 SEDAN was very nearly broken in two by the impact of the crash when the truck, driven by Kenneth Otto, 37, of Covina, smashed into the side of the car.

Also injured and hospitalized were Mrs. Mary Jackson, 47; Judy Wagner, 5, and Reginald Newman, a child whose age was not determined, also of Los Angeles.

Otto suffered only minor injuries.

Highway Patrol officers said that Pratt apparently attempted to effect a U-turn from his west-bound direction on Highway 99 and turned in front of the truck. A Patrol official said that Pratt began his U-turn from the shoulder.

Search for Youth At Salton Sea Comes to Close

SALTON SEA — Sheriff's deputies today halted their search for the fourth and last member of a Thermal family that apparently met disaster in a Salton Sea windstorm last Sunday.

Indio sheriff's Capt. Robert Presley secured the week-long sea hunt after his men had recovered the bodies of three persons who drowned when their boat apparently capsized in a sea of eight-foot waves.

Deputies from two counties, aided by Navy aircraft, have recovered the bodies of Clarence McClain, 46, his wife, Helen, 38, and youngest son, Patrick, 7.

Presley said his men have abandoned hope of finding the boy alive because the search team that recovered the body of his mother Wednesday also found an empty life preserver floating near her.

The sheriff's captain asked all visitors to the sea this week end to keep a sharp eye out for the missing youngster and to report any sighting to the sheriff's Indio sub-station by calling DIAMOND 7-3371.

Commission Member Joseph Houghteling of Sunnyvale said that the decision to seek a new contract did not necessarily commit the commission to the project, if the authority is ever successful in raising money for it.

TAKE TIME OUT OF HOLIDAY FOR BLOOD BANK, PLEASE

Robert Henwood, Desert Hospital administrator, today urged that Desert area residents reserve a few minutes from their busy holiday schedule to donate a pint of blood Monday.

The Riverside-San Bernardino two-county Blood Bank will be at the hospital from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Quota is 25 pints of blood.

"It's an ideal time to give a gift to yourself — a gift which can be used any time during the year. It's also one which can be passed on to your family or friends in an emergency," he added.

Private donations to specific persons or organizations will be accepted and credited to that account.

Decision May Follow Public Hearing in L.A.

New Contract Ordered Drawn For Old Project

Special to The Desert Sun
Members of the California Park Commission, meeting at San Francisco yesterday, opened the door again for possible construction of a tramway to the top of Mt. San Jacinto here.

But the final decision on whether the light stays green on the project will have to wait until the conclusion of public hearings which are scheduled to begin in Los Angeles on Jan. 13.

THE COMMISSION yesterday directed the Division of Beaches and Parks staff to prepare a new contract for the project.

The Commission had had a ten-year agreement with the State Winter Park Authority setting forth terms for construction of the tramway on park land, but this contract expired.

The authority was set up by the legislature in 1946 to push through construction of the tramway, but it thus far has been unable to sell enough bonds to finance the subject.

THE PROJECT has been a center of controversy because of opposition of nature lovers who fear that the wilderness area atop the mountain would be overrun by mobs of sightseers and skiers.

Dewitt Nelson, state director of natural resources, told the commission that the new contract should have new terms included. He said the contract executed in 1946 was contrary to present state policy on contracts.

The view was strongly opposed by Pasadena attorney Henry Lockwood, representing the Winter Authority.

HE CALLED FOR an identical contract to the former one and warned that rewriting the contract might take two or three years. "Some people don't want the tramway at all and simply want to delay any action," he said. Nelson denied re-negotiation would cause the delay as asserted by Lockwood.

Commission Member Joseph Houghteling of Sunnyvale said that the decision to seek a new contract did not necessarily commit the commission to the project, if the authority is ever successful in raising money for it.

For Supervisors

Eleven Desert Items on Agenda

RIVERSIDE — The Riverside County Board of Supervisors will discuss at least 11 matters of desert interest in its Monday meeting beginning at 10 a.m.

Road matters scheduled include consideration of the recommendation to approve the map and related road material on Rancho Palmaras Estates, unit three, and a recommendation to accept roads in the projected Palm Springs Panorama Number one. The board will also study a request to employ an appraiser for the Indio diagonal road across Indian lands.

UNDER PLANNING matters, board will consider a recommendation to change the name of Garnet Way to Garnet Avenue.

Miscellaneous considerations will include study of a recommendation of the Airport Commission to execute a transfer agreement with the California Aeronautics Administration for lighting equipment at Blythe airport, and a recommendation to make application to the Federal Aviation Agency for property adjacent to the Blythe Airport.

THE BOARD WILL also consider a resolution of intent to purchase additional land for the county fair.

Miscellaneous communications will include a letter from the Palm Desert Sales Co., relating to El Paseo Drive, Palm Desert; a letter from R. H. McDonald relating to the corner of 14th Avenue and West Drive south of Desert Hot Springs; an offer by the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce to offer facilities for holding board hearings; and a letter from the DHS Improvement Association relating to assessments in the area. Supervisor George Berkey explained in Palm Springs last week that the board cannot legally hold official meetings outside the county seat, but hearings could be conducted by members or representatives in other locations.

THE 'PEARLS' OF PAULINE

By JOAN WILCOXON

"To make infertile soil fertile—to harvest from rock—to thrive on sand—to plant gardens in the desert."

These challenging words from Exodus so strikingly describe the wide wasteland of desert converging into the blossoming oasis that is Palm Springs—our Promised Land!

AND THIS TALE is about Pauline Russell who is thriving on sand so successfully that without her Neel's Nursery wouldn't quite have the unique luster it has.

Seven years ago Mrs. Russell walked into Neel's, then on Indian Avenue, and waited. She doesn't wait well. She's the active type, a perfect fourteen after thirty-two years of marriage and grandchildren. She balanced from one foot to the other, finally marched out to the flats, picked up the one she wanted and carried it into the office.

A CLERK CAME puffing up apologetically.

"Sorry, madam—so sorry!" "You're short handed," she smiled.

"Oh, we are, we are, madam, so sorry." He repeated.

"Don't talk—move!" She retorted. "Or do I get a discount if I carry this to my car without your help?"

The man almost fainted. "Oh, heavens, madam!"

HE SWUNG TO answer the long-ringing phone, flew to cut off a flooding hose and in doing all of it tripped over a stack of tubs and broke the lot.

Pauline helped him to his feet, picked up the phone.

"Neel's Nursery," she spoke sweetly. "Can I help you?"

Hours later she phoned her husband at Paddock Pools.

"Darling?" She smoothed her voice into a matter of fact tone.

"I've just hired myself to a job I like. See you for dinner."

PAULINE'S JOB begins at seven, ends at four. She has no hobbies.

"Who needs hobbies with all these beautiful plants waiting for me every day? They're like orphans. I give them love until the right parent comes along and takes them home."

"They're not really happy here. They know its temporary and some of them sulk and refuse to budge or grow. They want their own home, their own patch of earth, and they want to belong!"

WATCHING the strong green fingers stir a tub of mulch much as our grandmothers churned a tub of butter we asked.

"Can you cook?"

"Sure—anything."

"Any favorite recipes?"

"None. I just like food," she answered and her clear brown eyes sparkled like a teen-ager.

"Food's good. I like it so I cook it—good. Like plants. I like them so they grow. In this desert soil most anything will grow if its planted at the right time."

WITH YOUR HANDS! Don't plant with gloves on. Its indifferent. Plants are sensitive. They've got feelings just like people. You wouldn't shake hands with your gloves on, would you?"

SHE LOOKED FOR a wry moment at the broken nails, the calloused cuticle, the grimy knuckles and chuckled.

"They're not hands for diamonds or pearls, but when I plant something—it lives!"

We wanted to say, who needs artificial adornment when the hands themselves radiate the power of life and love?

SOMEONE ONCE said: "The happiest man is the one who has found his work and works at it."

Running over seven acres of plant life in blue jeans, elbow high in earth and ankle deep in mulch may not be everyone's idea of happiness, but so long as this happy gal is around, "the desert (and its gardeners) shall rejoice and blossom as the rose!"

Western Airline Promotion Aids Desert Resort

Robert Cneadie, district sales manager for Western Airlines, this week hosted a "Sun Break" luncheon at the Oasis Hotel for some two dozen Palm Springs hotel operators and Chamber of Commerce officials, to outline the program of bringing more and more people to the desert for winter vacations.

Famous "Westy," the little bird that rides on the tail of the Western Airlines plane in advertisements, is currently telling millions of people throughout western states to go to Palm Springs for a "Sun Break."

CNEADIE TOLD THE group in the short but informative session that the "Sun Break" promotion has been read by some 5,000,000 people throughout the west and Canada in newspapers and national magazines, and has gone into another 5,000,000 homes through radio and television.

"Take a Sun Break on Western Airlines" is especially effective in the country that this time of year is covered with snow," he said. As drivers "slosh through the snow they can see a big billboard of a girl in a bathing suit relaxing in the sun," he noted.

ON ALL WESTERN Airlines promotion material, Palm Springs is listed first in a group of "sun country" spots throughout Southern California and Arizona.

Mayor Frank Bogert praised Western Airlines for the job it is doing.

Books as Yuletide Gift Can Be Pleasure for Tiny Tots

By GERRY VANEK

SNOW BEFORE CHRISTMAS: Tasha Tudor.

Seth, Bethany, and Muffin live in a lovely old house in the country; it's cozy home with four poster beds . . . feather mattresses . . . a warm, hospitable hearth . . . and old, oaken bucket hanging in the well . . . and a hemlock forest nearby just filled with Christmas trees.

It's exactly the sort of place in which the spirit of Christmas, as well as little children, can feel very much at home . . .

THE CHRISTMAS WHALE: Roger Duvoisin.

Sometimes Santa needs a little help on Christmas Eve, when it's time to deliver your toys. He's been helped before by elves, and a reindeer with a red nose — and now he has the biggest helper of all!

This animal is as fast as the wind, strong as the waves in a storm, and has a back as broad as an iceberg. I won't tell you who he is, but the title of the book will!

DONALD DUCK AND SANTA CLAUS: Walt Disney.

Donald wanted Santa to bring him more than his share of toys, so he flew all around the world in his super-sonic plane, and put out a sheaf of hay for Santa's reindeer in Sweden . . . trimmed a Tannenbaum in Germany . . . set out wooden shoes in Holland . . . and sandals called zapatas in Spain.

He hung up loooooong stockings and wrote loooooonger lists!

When Santa made his rounds by sleigh, he left toys for all the good little girls and boys, but he left a different sort of surprise for that devious duck!

"Dear Donald," the note said, "whatever you do, remember Santa Claus is watching you!"

SANTA'S TOY SHOP; Walt Disney.

In spite of his snow-white beard, Santa is very young in heart. His shop is always bursting and bulging with tempting toys, but does he ever have time to play with any of them? No, he's always too busy getting them ready for you! And the minute they are ready, Santa has to rush around the world and give all the toys away!

Finally, Mrs. Claus thought of a wonderful way in which Santa could stop and rest and have some fun — when every bit of his work was done!

THE DOLLS' CHRISTMAS: Tasha Tudor.

Sethany Ann and Nicey Melinda had a wonderful house of their own called Pumpkin House. The enchanting pictures make you wish you were small enough to move in, too!

They had a conservatory with pots of real plants in it, and a live turtle named Ezekiel. With the help of two little girls, they decorated their tiny Christmas tree with silver nutmegs, golden pears, and twinkling tinsel.

TWO MEN FACING TRIAL FOR NASTY CRACK ABOUT SANTA

PONTIAC, Mich. (UPI) — Two construction workers will be tried Jan. 5 on charges of calling Santa Claus a dirty name.

Herbert Holdworth and James C. Dunn were arrested after 7-year-old Kenny Green told his mother he heard them saying bad things about Santa.

The men pleaded innocent to charges of using obscene language.

Blonde TV Star Gets Cab Gaze

NEW YORK—Sandu Scott, a willowy blonde who resembles Jayne Mansfield here and there, is always urging New York cab drivers to watch her on the ABC television show, "Anything Goes."

They ask her a lot of silly questions about it, such as "What time is it on?" — and she tells them it's on around the witching hour.

"But I watch Jack Paar," they have a way of saying.

"Who is Jack Paar?" she has a way of replying.

It's probably as good a way as any to face a currently hopeless situation. The ABC brass has warned performers on "Anything Goes" not to mention Jack Paar on the show. They apparently feel that if they ignore him, he will go away.

"Do you ever sneak into your dressing room and watch him when you're not doing something on the show?" we asked Miss Scott the other night at the Stockholm over an aquavit.

"No—I don't have time," she said.

Sandu — who romantic and exotic name she made up — was born in Detroit with a rather prosaic moniker, Marianne Alexandra Bott.

She's now married to Sol Silver, owner of two Montreal cafes, and commutes Canada — ward each weekend — and is convinced that she's making progress professionally opposing the Paar show.

Coming here to model, she was chosen "Miss New York City" in 1952, but got disqualified when it was discovered she'd only been in town five months.

"You have to be here 9 months, I think," she said. "I guess I do everything too fast."

"The third day I was in town I faked my way on the Milton Berle TV show."

"I went in to have them see me, and somebody asked me, 'Do you know the semaphore code?' I lied, I said sure. They said they wanted me to do a semaphore announcement about a Frank Loesser song on the show."

"I said, sure, I learned it when I was a Girl Scout."

"That night I looked all over town for someplace where I could find the semaphore code. I found it in a sporting goods store, over by the tennis counter. I learned a little and faked the rest."

Sandu's a mite vague about how she got that name.

CELEBRITIES JAM NEW HIGHLANDER

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — Approximately 600 people from the desert area, and communities as far as Hollywood, attended the pre-opening party for the new Highlander Saddle and Siroin restaurant and cocktail lounge here last night.

The restaurant is located at the Desert Highlands Hot Springs resort and motel on Hacienda Drive.

Owned by a group headed by developer C. E. Babin, the new restaurant and lounge will be operated by Dave Lyon.

Owners who attended the pre-opening party were Mr. and Mrs. Don Hulbert, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Babin, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Spellaza, and Mrs. Dave Hunsinger of Palm Springs.

Former state senator Jack Tenney, Banning composer who wrote "Mexicali Rose," and Mrs. Tenney, were present, as was chamber of commerce head Robert G. Lester, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kanywa, Mr. and Mrs. Al Horton, Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Edmonds, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kibbey, Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Burmesch, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Eaton, Mr. and Mrs. David G. Press, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lukomski, and other area business and civic leaders.

Yule Pageant Set for Church

A pageant, "The King is Here!" will be presented at 7:30 p.m. Sunday, by the Sunday School of the Community Church of Palm Springs.

The Junior Choraleers, under the direction of Mrs. Lorna Little, will sing a Christmas anthem and several Christmas carols.

The Youth Choir, directed by Alex Hammond, will sing "O Night of Holy Memory," with a solo by Nancy Leonard, and "Away in a Manger," solo by Merle Moore.

Mary Lindenstein will recite "The Magnificat." Nancy Meadows will sing "Canticle of Noel." Bonnie Blackstone will sing "The Song That Will Live Forever," and Dr. James H. Blackstone, Jr., will sing "Down From His Glory."

'Messiah' Ready For Presentation Tuesday Night

Handel's "Messiah," most famed of the Christian oratorios, will be presented free to the public by the Palm Springs Civic Chorus and soloists in the High School auditorium at 8:15 p.m. Tuesday.

Featured soloists for the revered musical work — its ninth presentation by the Civic Chorus — will be Phylla Bedford, soprano; Reba Mason, alto; Niles Howell, tenor, and Alexander Hammond, bass.

THE PERFORMANCE will be directed by Harry Tomlinson, with Christine Tomlinson at the organ. Soprano Phylla Bedford and bass Alex Hammond are the remaining two original members of the 10-year-old civic chorus. Mrs. Bedford is a former soloist with the Fred Waring choral group.

HOWELL, A GRADUATE of the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music and a newcomer to the Desert, was a soloist with the Cincinnati May Festival, and as a graduate student toured with the University of California a capella choir. Prior to moving to the desert, he was tenor soloist at St. James Episcopal Church in Los Angeles.

The Civic Chorus is sponsored by the Music Society of Palm Springs, which has announced the "Messiah" performance is a "Christmas present to the community."

Bellamy Due as FDR

NEW YORK (UPI) — It is now definite that Ralph Bellamy will play Franklin D. Roosevelt in the Warner Bros. film version of "Sunrise at Campobello," in which Bellamy starred on the stage. The star and play will tour the major part of this season. Filming is scheduled to begin next March.

Polio Victim Given Gift Of Burro

TV 'Millionaire' Program Brings Joy to Youth, 12

By VERNON SCOTT

UPI Hollywood Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Don Fedderson, who gives away an imaginary million bucks every week as producer of TV's "The Millionaire," brought a million dollars worth of joy this week to a polio-stricken boy in New Castle, Pa.

Last October Fedderson completed a segment of his show co-starring a docile, 10-year-old burro named Clara, and became attached to the beast.

RATHER THAN sell the little donkey, he thought it would make a bright Christmas gift for one of his youthful viewers. In a United Press International story the producer asked youngsters to write him letters explaining why they wanted a burro.

Fedderson was rewarded with more than 1,400 letters from all sections of the country. He and his crew sorted them carefully and selected a missive from Ronnie Barthege, 12, who read the story in the New Castle News.

RONNIE'S LETTER, in part, read: "I would like to have Clara because six years ago I had polio. My little sister died from it, and my brother Chuckie has a brace on his right leg."

"I have to walk on crutches and I had an operation on my back last year."

"I WAS IN A big cast and couldn't move for over nine months. Now I am able to go without a back brace. But I get too tired if I walk too far on my crutches. In June I have to have a couple more operations on my legs. So I would like to have the burro to ride and then I could go where the other kids go, and even go to the store for my mother. Chuckie could ride, too."

Ronnie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Barthege. His father is a steel worker who recently returned to work after the industry wide strike.

CLARA, COMPLETE with saddle, bridle and blanket, was scheduled to be flown by the Flying Tigers Line (for free) from Hollywood to Cleveland, Ohio, where Ronnie and his family will greet the little burro who has retired from the glamorous acting life. Editors of the New Castle News have provided transportation for the burro to Ronnie's home.

VIA LONG DISTANCE telephone Ronnie told the UPI, "This is the best Christmas present a guy ever got. The good part of it is I can share Clara with all my brothers."

In addition to Chuckie, Clara will be hauling around Ricky, 6; Mike, 8, and David, 10. "We have a shed to keep Clara in," Ronnie said. "And she won't be lonesome either. We have a pet duck and a dog."

Hiding Dennis' Gifts Problem For Mitchells

Failing to reckon with a small boy's ingenuity, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson conspire with the Mitchells to hide Dennis' Christmas presents.

In "The Christmas Story" on "Dennis the Menace" Sunday, Dec. 20 (CBS Television Network, 7:30-8 p.m., p.s.t.).

Jay North co-stars as Dennis with Herbert Anderson as Henry Mitchell, Gloria Henry as Alice Mitchell, and Joseph Kearns as Mr. Wilson. Featured in "The Christmas Story" cast are Sylvia Field as Mrs. Wilson, Billy Booth as Tommy, and Robert B. Williams as Don Dorfman.

Don Taylor directs the script by William Cowley and Peggy Chantler.

Holiday Show To Feature Palm Desert

PALM DESERT—A travel story on Palm Desert will be shot Jan. 8 and 9 by the Holiday Television Show, it was disclosed at a chamber of commerce meeting here yesterday.

The show is sponsored by a series of dairies and the milkmen deliver 175,000 of brochures which are made from the stills to customers on their routes.

The filming will possibly include shots of Eldorado Country Club, polo games, the Wild Game Sanctuary, date palms, picnicking, collecting rocks, shopping area scenes, driving range and horseback riding.

Murray, Cook To Be Guests

Comedian Ken Murray, deejay Ira Cook, pianist Bruce Duncanson, actor-writer Billy Snyder and author-writer Williams sit in as special guests on "George Jessel's Show," Saturday, December 19, 8 p.m., KCOP, Channel 13.

Almost half of the nation's 12½ million stockholders have household incomes of $5,000 to $10,000 a year.

Three Special Yule Programs Planned

Christmas will be ushered in on The CBS Television Network with three special programs, beginning at 11:15 p.m., p.s.t., on Christmas Eve and continuing until 1 a.m. on the holiday morning.

Two additional Christmas Eve programs, one presenting carols by the United Nations Singers, the other featuring Christmas music broadcast from St. George's Roman Catholic Church in St. Louis, Mo., will be presented. These are in addition to "The Vigil of Christmas."

FROM 11:15 to 11:30 p.m. on Christmas Eve the United Nations Singers, a group of U.N. employees dressed in the costumes of their native lands, will offer traditional Yuletide songs from such countries as Austria, France, Great Britain, Hungary, Poland and Spain.

The group will be under the direction of Don Read of the Juilliard School of Music. The special program will be pre-recorded on video tape. It will be produced and directed by Harry Rasky of the Public Affairs Department of CBS News. (The United Nations Singers also will be seen, as previously announced, on "U.N. in Action" Sunday, Dec. 20, 9-9:30 a.m., p.s.t.).

FROM 11:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m. "The Vigil of Christmas," the traditional Christmas Eve service in the Washington National (Episcopal) Cathedral, Washington, D.C., will be broadcast on the Network.

From 12:30 to 1 a.m. on Christmas morning, the Network will present a program of Christmas music by the St. George's combined adult and children's choir, with Paul Hotan as organist and choral director. A special feature of the program will be a holiday message by the Rt. Rev. Mark F. Ebner, pastor of St. George's and vice official of the St. Louis Archdiocese.

Jim Baxes to Be Haney's Guest

Jim Baxes, former member of Fred Haney's pennant-winning Hollywood Stars and power hitter for the Cleveland Indians last season, will be Haney's special guest on "Major League Baseball Presents," Saturday, December 19, 9 p.m., KCOP, Channel 13. The videotaped re-creation of one of last season's outstanding games will see Chicago in action against Kansas City.

Special TV Christmas Show Set

'To Each a Gift' To Be Presented Sunday Morning

As a special highlight of the Christmas season television, "This Is The Life" will present its Christmas drama, "To Each a Gift" on KRCR (Channel 4), Sunday morning, Dec. 20 at 10 a.m. It is the story of a man whose depression and bitterness over money troubles nearly destroys his little daughter's faith in the meaning of Christmas. But when each member of the family sacrifices treasured possessions to make gifts for the others, the deeper spirit of Christmas is rekindled.

This TV play is the only "this is the life" episode to depart from modern-day settings into costume drama. It was filmed in answer to many TV station requests for a "different Christmas story".

Dogs to Show Holiday Spirit

A group of trained dogs will act out the spirit of Christmas family fun when they put up their own Christmas tree and open their own gift-wrapped packages during KTTV's "Pet Life" special Christmas program, Sunday, Dec. 20, 5:30 p.m., Channel Eleven.

MOORE TO HOST 'THE YEAR GONE BY'

Garry Moore will host "The Year Gone By," a special two-part television forum examining America's achievements in the arts, sciences and humanities during 1959. This presentation of the Public Affairs Department of CBS News will be broadcast Sunday, Dec. 20 and Sunday, Dec. 27 (1-2 p.m., p.s.t.) on The CBS Television Network.

Actress-author Ika Chase and Columbia University's Professor Charles Frankel, in addition to host Moore, will serve as interlocutors when they interview 14 leading American spokesmen from the fields of religion, television, radio, finance-business, art, law, the press, education, medicine, motion pictures, music, literature, science, drama and fashion.

ON THE first segment of the Sunday, Dec. 20 broadcast, Miss Chase will talk with Edwin James, managing editor of Broadcasting Magazine (television-radio); John A. Hutchison, Professor of Religion, Columbia University (religion); Vermont C. Royster, editor of the Wall Street Journal (finance-business); and Leo Steinberg, art critic and lecturer at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York (art).

Professor Frankel, on the second half-hour of the program, will talk with Whitney North Seymour, president-elect, American Bar Association (law); Herbert Brucker, publisher of the Hartford (Conn.) Courant (the press); and Dr. Frank Sparks, chairman of the Council for Financial Aid to Education (education).

ON THE FOLLOWING Sunday, Dec. 27, Garry Moore, as interlocutor, will talk with Dr. Walter Alvarez, Professor Emeritus of Medicine, University of Minnesota, Mayo Foundation (medicine); Jay Carmody, critic for the Washington (D.C.) Star (motion pictures); Mitch Miller, executive producer, Columbia Records (music); and Edward Weeks, editor, Atlantic Monthly (literature).

Moore, who stars on "The Garry Moore Show," Tuesdays, and "I've Got a Secret," Wednesdays, on The CBS Television Network, will conclude the last part of the two-part special broadcast when he talks with Prof. Donald H. Menzel, Director of the Harvard College Observatory (science); Russell Crouse, Broadway producer-author (drama); and Nancy White, editor, Harper's Bazaar (fashion).

FUN WITH FLOWERS TO FEATURE MANY GIFT-WRAP IDEAS

With the holiday season full upon us, professional florist and decorator Aileen Hersham features timely tips on all types of holiday decorations and gift-wrap ideas on KTTV's "Fun With Flowers" Sunday, Dec. 20, 1:15 p.m., Channel Eleven.

Miss Hersham uses all types of traditional, imaginative and special professional materials to demonstrate the decorative possibilities for the holiday — including novel doorpieces, centerpieces, table setting and unusual gift-wrapping ideas.

Miss Hersham stresses the fact that these featured ideas and designs are unusual and eye-catching yet simplicity itself to execute to give your home a real happy holiday look throughout.

Nehru to Be Face the Nation Guest

Program Taped After Talks With President

India's Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru will be the guest on a special hour — long broadcast of "Face the Nation" on the CBS Television Network Sunday, Dec. 20 (3-4 p.m., p.s.t.). The program was videotaped in New Delhi after President Eisenhower conferred with Mr. Nehru during the President's 11-nation 22,000-mile good-will trip abroad.

THE BROADCAST will mark the first time that "Face the Nation" has been produced abroad with television equipment, rather than with film cameras.

CBS News chartered a DC-4 to serve as a flying mobile unit equipped with American videotape recorders, television cameras and equipment and its own diesel generator. This unit, which covered President Eisenhower's visits to New Delhi and Rome for the "Eye-Witness to History" series, was also used for the "Face the Nation" interview with Mr. Nehru.

THE PRIME minister was interviewed by A. T. Steele of the New York Herald Tribune, Philip Potter of the Baltimore Sun and CBS News correspondent Daniel Schorr. Moderator of the program is CBS News correspondent Stuart Novins.

'Hotel De Paree'

Stopgap Filler Moves to Top

By VERNON SCOTT
UPI Hollywood Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Sometimes a TV series is thrown together quickly as stopgap filler for a void in the scheduling, usually a second rate show with a life expectancy of a season or less.

Such was the case with "Hotel de Paree" which was dumped into the breach on Friday nights opposite "Walt Disney Presents" ABC and "Man and the Challenge" (NBC).

IT WAS JUST another western with nothing to distinguish it from other oaters except for "big name guest stars."

CBS hired raw-boned Earl Holliman to portray in a running character named Sundance, who was supposed to hang around in the background while the visiting star carried the ball. If the show didn't become a world-shaker it could be dropped with no harm done.

BUT THE BRASS figured without the redoubtable Mr. Holliman.

It turns out this rangy, not-too-handsome actor is an angry young man — and not the kind who beats bongo drums or reads beatnik poetry.

Holliman wasn't satisfied with a second — rate show. He fought writers, producers, directors and anyone who would listen to him. Now, with the season half over, and on its fourth director, the show has battled its way into the list of the top 30 programs rating-wise.

"WHEN YOU agree to do a TV western the best you can hope for is mediocrity," Holliman said. "But after seeing the pilot I knew we weren't even mediocre."

"I used to lie awake until 4 a.m. worrying about the show, furious that the characters weren't established. We had no point of view. We had nothing going for us, and no one was doing anything about it."

Why the big crusade? Why doesn't Earl just grab the big dough and let the series die a natural death?

"I CAN'T be happy unless I'm doing the best I can. And I want to build a future as a performer. An actor can't do that in a bad series."

"Another point: I own 20 percent of the show," he continued. "I'd like to be proud of it, and maybe things will turn out that way. This is the first week I haven't had to fight for changes in the script."

"THE LAST time the ratings came out we were one of three new shows to make the top 40 programs."

"If I have anything to say about it, 'Hotel de Paree' will climb higher — and we'll be on the air again next fall."

TV-Radio in The Sun

THIRD 'HISTORY' SHOW SET TONIGHT

"The Conference at Paris," third program in the current "Eye-witness to History" series reporting on President Eisenhower's 11-nation tour to Europe, Asia and North Africa, will be presented on the CBS Television Network Sunday, Dec. 20 (10:30-11 p.m., p.s.t.).

Included in "The Conference at Paris" will be highlights of the President's visits to Iran and Greece; his Mediterranean voyage to Tunisia aboard the cruiser USS Des Moines; his visit with Premier Habib Bourguiba in Tunis; his arrival in southern France and his reception in Paris. There also will be an analysis of what is expected to be accomplished at the Western Big Four summit conference in Paris next week.

MUCH OF "The Conference at Paris" will be video-taped in the French capital by the mobile camera and video-taping units leased by CBS News from Britain's Associated Television Limited.

CBS News correspondents in Paris reporting on the program are Walter Cronkite (anchor man), Howard K. Smith, David

Death of Queen Of Sea To Be Century Show

"End of the Battlewagon" the story of the rise and fall of a mighty queen of the sea, the battleship, will be presented on "The Twentieth Century" series Sunday, Dec. 20 (6:30-7 p.m., p.s.t.) on The CBS Television Network.

CBS news correspondent Walter Cronkite narrates the program, which is a filmed obituary of the once-invincible capital ship no major world navy was without.

The battleship reached its greatest pinnacle of power and majesty in World War II, and it also met its end.

TODAY, THE battleship is a stagnant member of the "moth-ball fleet." There isn't a single one in commission in the U.S. Navy. It has been replaced by the jet aircraft carrier, the missile-firing cruiser and the atomic submarine.

Two special "eyewitnesses" to the rise and fall of the battleship will appear on "End of the Battlewagon."

THEY ARE GEN. Clayton Bissell (USAF, Ret.), who, with GEN. Billy Mitchell, proved the effectiveness of air power by sinking the captured German battleship "Ostfriesland" from the air in 1921, and Vice Adm. William Callaghan (USN, Ret.), first skipper of the USS Missouri, the last battleship built by the U.S. Navy.

"End of the Battlewagon" was produced by Burton Benjamin.

Isaac Kleinerman is associate producer and John G. Fuller wrote the script.

William Parker, Chief of Police for Los Angeles, will answer pertinent questions on "How Serious is the Los Angeles Crime Rate?" when he appears as special guest on "California Report," Sunday afternoon, Dec. 20 at 2:30 p.m. over KRCR (Channel 4).

Eugene Mueller, Chief of Police from Culver City, and also a noted news reporter from Los Angeles will also be among the day's guests to participate in this lively discussion.

Voice of Insect To Be Conquest Show Sunday

The story of how modern science is constantly developing new weapons for man in his eternal struggle against the insect world will be told on "Conquest" when the science series presents "Voice of the Insect" Sunday, Dec. 20 (5:30 p.m., p.s.t.) on The CBS Television Network.

CBS News correspondent Charles Collingwood is host and narrator of the program, which shows the work of entomologists Dr. R. C. Busnel of France and Dr. Edward S. Hodgson of Columbia University in New York.

Dr. Busnel, of the National Institute of Agricultural Research in Paris, has been able to decipher the sound of locusts, and has actually managed to duplicate that sound mechanically. As a result, he can "talk" to the locusts and, in turn, control their movements. Dr. Hodgson has found the same thing to be true with other insects, specifically the roach, and his research is helping scientists further understand the nervous system of man.

"Voice of the Insect" was written by Craig Gilbert. The producer is Michael Sklar and Harold Mayer is associate producer. "Conquest," a presentation of the Public Affairs Department of CBS News, is presented in cooperation with the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

'Clean' Vagabond Assists Police

A vagabond who believes in keeping the city "clean" leads San Francisco police to a group of narcotics peddlers who appear to have an "exclusive" on West Coast crime during KTTV's "San Francisco Beat," Saturday, December 19, 8:30 p.m., Channel Eleven.

Tom Tully and Warner Anderson star as Inspector Matt Greb and Lt. Ben Guthrie. Marshall Reed is featured as Inspector Fred Asher. The cast includes Harry Harvey, Sr. as Ed Austin, Robert Cross as Chimp, Harry Lauer as Breadwinner and Howard McNear as Prester John.

The Desert Sun is an independent newspaper dedicated to truth, accuracy and impartiality in the news, to the progress of the desert region, to the support of that which it believes to be right and to the defeat of that which it believes wrong.

A Great Desert Decade

As we again approach year's end and the close of the 1950 decade thoughts of almost all psychologically turn toward another 10 years in speculation as to what the 1960s may be expected to bring forth in the way of growth, achievement and progress.

Here in Palm Springs and the desert region there was more expansion, development, improvement and growth in the ten years just passed than in all the other years combined dating back to the turn of the century.

Every important index of comparison shows Palm Springs and environs to be more than double in size, volume and accomplishments of all kinds in both a commercial and civic sense than at the dawning of the New Year of 1950.

What will be the case ten years hence as the New Year of 1970 approaches? What do the 1960s hold in store for our desert region?

Without resort to oracles or professing to be prophetic, there are certain sound and well established facts and trends which can be relied upon as barometric business guides for Palm Springs and the surrounding desert communities.

First of these is the fact that the general average gain and growth in this part of the desert is from two to five times that of the State of California as a whole in most major respects.

Second is the additional fact that the average annual gain in California is from two to four times that of the nation as a whole.

Thus it does not require a mathematician or statistician to perceive that favorable progress and development of the United States is reflected in far greater proportion in the desert region, and that even in slower times the desert area remains as a comparative bright spot as was shown during the recession of several years ago.

Thus when 20 of the nation's leading economists predict that the American economy will grow even faster during the 1960s than in the 1950s it follows that the entire desert area should benefit in greater measure than ever.

From a national standpoint the experts—assuming there is no major war, no radical disarmament and no major disturbance in the economy by outside forces—estimate that by 1970 the Federal Reserve Board's index of industrial production will rise from the current 150 to 215.

This would be a compound rate of growth of a little less than 4 per cent a year, compared with the 3 per cent the economy has achieved in the last few decades.

To provide the production facilities for that mounting flood of goods, the economists predict that expenditures for new plants and equipment will increase to $55 billion in 1970, an 80 per cent gain over 1958.

Business sales are forecast slightly more than a trillion dollars by 1970... about 60 per cent more than the 1958 total.

In conclusion, when the relation of the Palm Springs growth pattern to that of the nation is projected into the ten year forecast for the United States, there is every reason and assurance for the oft expressed belief that the entire desert region will more than double its great gains of the 1950s during the 1960s.

In fact, it is doubtful if any other locality in California or the United States has as bright a prospective future as we do in this most favored part of our great desert.

Some Things I Believe

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. — I believe in life and living because they are facts. I believe in my work, in my home, in my family, in my true friends, because they are facts. I believe love keeps the world from falling apart.

I believe in my country and in my God, because they are facts. Which is to say, I believe in nothing unless it is supported by facts, faith or common sense. Common sense is the yardstick of the possible.

I LIKE TO BELIEVE, rather than disbelieve, even though I get stung now and then. I judge people by their motives more than by their acts.

I believe in my home... because I feel comfortable in a home, rather than in an apartment or the swankiest hotel suite.

I KNOW IT COSTS me more to live in a good home, but it would cost more not to live in a place where I felt comfortable.

It would cost me the price of peace of mind and breathing space and privacy, and the feeling of owning the ground on which I sleep.

The problems of home ownership, the high taxes, upkeep, are a part of the price I am willing to pay, for I believe in a home.

I BELIEVE in making just enough money... because money makes me feel that I know my way around in this competitive and often selfish world... and people show me special respect when I don't go around touching them for a loan.

The possession of money makes men masculine and women feminine. It enables a man to secure his family — the woman, the gadgets and scents and fashions which make her attractive to have around.

MONEY LETS me see the world... and increases my understanding of mankind and the meaning of brotherhood. Money makes it easier for me to express my concern of the less fortunate.

But I don't covet money... because money has absolutely no spiritual appeal for me. Money is an end in itself only for misers and show-offs. The best that can be said for money is that when wisely used, it's like a Maginot line for maturity.

I BELIEVE THERE is something wrong with a man who has to have a new car, or a new model of anything every time one comes out. It proves he needs props constantly to hide his immaturity, an inferiority complex, and mental insecurity.

This man has no balance, but feels conspicuous and outmoded unless he has the latest gadgets around him. It's the absurdity of "aheadness"... constantly striving to be ahead of everybody else.

This kind of fellow is already wondering what the 1961 cars will look like and probably will place an order for one even before he breaks in his 1960 model.

I BELIEVE in the professional touch of anything or anybody I see. The pro is somebody who does his job well, whether he feels like it or not. He is the trouper of his chosen vocation... whether he is a mechanic or a magate.

The word of the pro is authority. He is worth more than he ever gets paid. He is probably less sensational or conspicuous. He says and does more in one minute than the amateur in a month.

THE PRO IS A credit to everyone who knows him. He talks, paints, drives, hosts, cooks, eats, entertains, informs, with the flair of an artist. His eyes and his heart speak louder than his lips.

He moves mountains with a song or an idea. He may be piloting a 707, driving a bus, sailing a sloop or preaching a sermon. The pro makes us believe in quality... not just what something costs.

I BELIEVE THE world would be different if one side really understood the other. A man would never kill a bird if he knew the facts about birds. The slowpoke, holding up the ticket line, may be hiding two artificial legs under his pants. The neighbor neglecting his lawn may be due to sickness not known to his neighbors.

Since it is not possible to have all the facts, it is better to be cautious about our conclusions. I believe in facts whether they support me or prove me wrong.

I have no faith in intuitions, personal whims, emotional jags, or just opinions.

Facts give me a base on which to build truth. I can pour myself into any task based on facts. I can convince almost anybody in time if the facts are with me.

I BELIEVE A person is happiest in the degree that he can get along without things. In these times too many people appear lost in their own labyrinths, because everything is done for them and they have little or nothing to throw themselves into.

I believe in prayer, but not in dogma. I believe we can do more for ourselves than anyone can do for us. I believe reducing pills are an insult to one's intelligence. I believe personal budgets are for children and the immature. If you can't eat moderately or save moderately on your own, without piggy banks and artificial props, you have not acquired self discipline.

I BELIEVE A truly cultured person is not one who has knowledge of the best sellers, or the Britannica, but one who has control over his own nature, or has the fortitude to impose a substantial check on it.

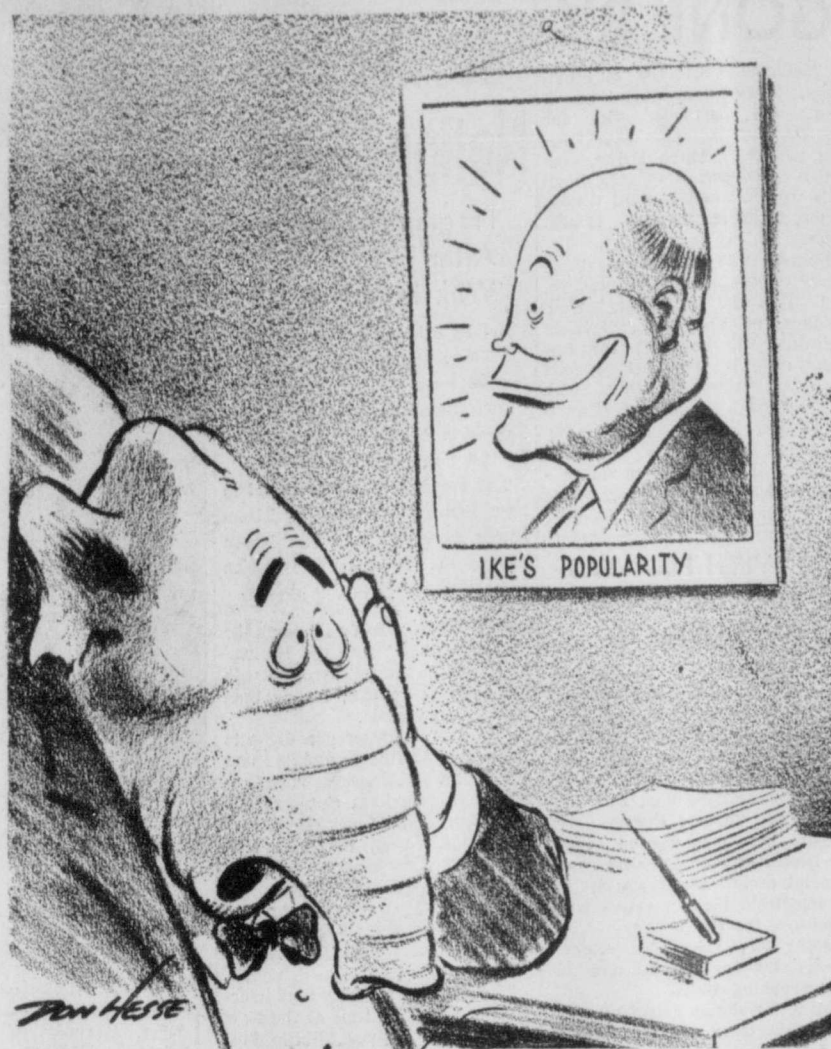

I don't care where people come from, or what language they speak... I like people. A real test of culture or education is how we live in groups.

I LIKE THE non-conformist because he consistently makes exciting discoveries. Some things can only be achieved by jumping in the other direction, like going abroad to find how much you miss your country.

I believe there are too many critics and not enough Christians. The passion for details drives people to send letters to "Nero" advising him he was fiddling his fiddle wrong. I believe people should have a minimum of vices, but a maximum of temptations... because temptations stir them and challenge their will.

There is nothing more soothing than to know the limits of one's faculties. A long argument proves nothing but that both parties were wrong. True knowledge is acquired bit by bit, by... experience. The wisdom of maturity will always excel the advantages of youth.—John Morley

CHRISTMAS POEM

Advice to be who Celebrates.
Lay off that which Inebriates.

The happy holiday season is coming up. We'll be in the middle of it within a week.

HIGHWAY patrolmen aren't looking forward to the season of cheer with cheers.

What with the Christmas parties coming up all over town and the New Year's Eve celebration a week later, they are anticipating a busy time.

Safety councils are also worried.

IN LOS ANGELES the Safety Council mailed out 10,000 appeals this week.

They went to industrial and business concerns urging them to stage their Christmas parties as usual but "not to serve alcoholic beverages."

They also mailed letters to ministers and priests asking them to deliver pre-holiday sermons tomorrow emphasizing the moral nature of safety.

MANY FIRMS are discontinuing the annual office Christmas party.

The kind where the janitor, sufficiently fortified, slaps the big boss on the shoulder and advises him on how to run the business.

And bald-headed bookkeepers make passes at pretty clerks.

TRAFFIC OFFICERS aren't counting on it too much, however.

There'll be no Christmas holiday for them. They'll be out in droves during the long four-day Christmas holiday — for the observance will start the day before — and again the following weekend when the year 1960 will be welcomed.

"Looks like I'll be saddle-sore January 2," one motorcycle officer told me.

PALM SPRINGS is first again.

Not so long ago Chief of Police A. G. Kettmann inaugurated a pay by mail plan for parking law violations, the idea being that those ticketed could send in their bail money by letter and thus save a long trip and a wait in traffic court.

In Palm Springs they even put out addressed envelopes, postage prepaid.

THE OTHER DAY Los Angeles city council took a hand at the same idea.

They asked Gov. Pat Brown to ask the state legislature to approve a plan whereby minor traffic violations could be erased by a pay-by-mail plan.

Traffic court judges joined in the appeal to Brown, pointing out how much time and travel could be saved that way.

NOW IS THE TIME to call attention again that Santa comes twice next week.

On Friday, the 25th, it is Santa Claus.

On Saturday, the 26th, it is Santa Anita.

Some people may have to look for Santa Claus after Santa Anita.

Burt Kruse says that the reason wives say their husbands do odd jobs around the house is because that is what they look like.

FRANK ELEAZER:

New Driver Testing

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The American Automobile Association expects to come out soon with a wonderful new way to test drivers. I just took the test and am pretty sure it showed I hate work, like girls, and love money.

What it established about my prospects for long life in my I keep driving I'll never know, unless I get up courage to send in the papers for grading.

TO TAKE THIS test, which is not quite ready for general use, you don't even have to get behind the wheel, although goodness knows AAA isn't opposed to qualifying prospective drivers that way. All you do is put check marks on some forms.

The test takes 10 minutes and is based on what psychologists call a "semantic differential."

That last has nothing whatever to do with the big round thing between the back wheels.

THE TEST, DEVISED by Columbia University psychologist James L. Malfetti under a $100,000 grant from the AAA's Traffic Safety Foundation, is intended to establish your attitude toward the automobile.

Malfetti and others at work on the safety project developed the test after performing a deep psychological study on 400 teenage drivers in Cleveland. Half of these were chronic traffic violators. The other half had good driving records.

IT IS BUILT around 12 words, or "concepts" as the psychologists call them. It records your associations or impressions about each of these words. One of the words is car. Others, besides words, women and money, include weapon, transportation, and power.

Dr. Malfetti is 39 and has been in the psychology business long enough to know that anybody old enough to drive can figure the "right" answers if simply asked to rate his own concept of a car. The new test, though, can't be faked.

AS APPLIED to each of the 12 words or concepts you are asked to judge 10 pairs of contradictory adjectives — active or passive, clean or dirty, weak or strong, etc. You do this by putting check marks on a scale, between these extremes. That's how I uncovered my hidden feelings on work, girls, and money.

Fortunately, the quiz givers won't care much how you rate any one of these items, even car. What they do when you're through is link up your check marks with lines and compare the resulting pictures. The picture most nearly resembling the one your check marks made under "car" shows the psychologists which word you associate with the automobile.

THE PROVEN BAD drivers in Cleveland, for instance, associated cars with weapons or freedom from control of their parents. Even I can see that is bad. Drivers with good records tended to associate autos with transportation or work.

I can't say for sure what all the other possible associations might reveal to the experts. But each concept was picked for a purpose.

NOW THAT I'VE disclosed some of Dr. Malfetti's secrets, I don't feel guilty at all. Even when you know all this in advance, it won't help a bit if and when you go in for the test.

Because Dr. Malfetti, as a final safeguard, has sneakily jiggered the order of the 10 pairs of adjectives as related to each of the 12 key words. Sometimes he has also reversed 'em. Before linking up your check marks, to make pictures, he restores them to their original order.

That's why I don't know yet whether my dentless fenders result from good driving or luck. I'm not sure I want to find out.

Hollywood — Liberace is well prepared for his next vaudeville stand at the London Palladium, coming up this spring. He has signed as his co-star the gal who can put the "hex" on any British critics who might take after him this time — Vampira!

The next year looms as The Year of Sinclair Lewis in Hollywood, just as 1959 belonged to another literary titan of The Roaring '20s, F. Scott Fitzgerald. DuPont's Show of the Month, beaming Jan. 17, will be a dramatization of the late novelist's book about the medical profession, "Arrowsmith."

SHORTLY AFTER which Columbia Pictures will release its own Lewis entry, "Elmer Gantry." And there's also interest in the play co-scripted by Lewis and Chicago editor Lloyd Lewis (no kin) called "Jayhawk."

The TV boys are really rummaging around for stories these days. Latest literary light to turn up is Thorne Smith, whose "Topper" stories (including "Topper" and "Topper Takes a Trip") did very well for themselves as movies. Teleproducer Bernard Schubert will shoot an hourlong version in April — a prelude, he hopes, to a regular weekly Topper series.

Politicians who demand equal time on TV aren't new, says George Phair — all of our TV shows have been divided approximately 50-50 between entertainment and commercials!

No question about it, the payola probe will pay off with better music. That's the promise of Los Angeles' deejay "Cook," longtime enemy of rock-n-roll. While pointing the finger at no particular rocker, Cook says, "Many so-called 'artists' who have records currently appearing in those 'Top 40' lists will be completely forgotten this time next year."

AN "OFFICIAL" proclamation from the CBS publicity boys about the departure of the hour-long Lineup series from their beam: "The decision to take the sponsored program off the air was in the interest of achieving greater over-all program balance." Why don't they just come out and say it wasn't such a hot show?

Well, whaddya know — Fox, which is shooting a movie called "The Story of Ruth," finally talked TV producer Hubbell Robinson out of telecasting Ruth Bergen in The Story of Ruth. But now TV producer Harry Tugend of GE Theatre is luring Polly to fly out for HIS telecast of another Biblical epic, The Story of Judith!

Putt Ices SoCal Title For Lloyd

Lloyd Mangrum, the Squire of Happy Valley, who was far off the pace Wednesday and came roaring around the turn Thursday, came up in the stretch Friday to win the 1959 Southern California Open at Indian Wells Country Club in a photo finish.

He dropped a 16-foot putt at the first hole of a sudden death playoff to defeat Jim Ferrier, early leader, and John McMullin with whom he had been tied at the end of the regulation 54-hole tournament.

ALL THREE finished the three days of 18-hole play each, with 200s.

So they embarked on the 391-yard opener of the sudden death playoff.

McMullin, first to putt, was 20 feet short. Mangrum then sank his birdie and Ferrier couldn't catch up.

It was Mangrum's first tournament win since the Los Angeles Open of 1956.

JOHN McMULLIN SHAKES HANDS with Lloyd Mangrum immediately after "sudden death" playoff at Indian Wells Country Club in the Southern California Golf Championship which ended with Mangrum top winner Friday. McMullin and Jim Ferrier tied. Ferrier who was paged to have his picture taken with McMullin and Mangrum, refused—even when Mangrum called to him. Ferrier indicated instead that he was going to take a shower. (Sun Photo)

WESTERN CAGE TEAMS SUFFER BAD NIGHT AGAINST NATION

United Press International

Far Western basketball, which has been second to none for the past half-dozen years or so, crumbled Friday night in a series of inter-sectional disasters which saw only a scared University of California quintet manage to come up with a win.

Most of the coast teams will get a chance at revenge tonight.

EVEN THE fourth-rated Bears were almost toppled in Friday night's action. They needed all their famed poise to overcome a cold shooting night and a hot-handed Colorado team. Cal won, 51-47.

The Buffs were down 27-21 at half-time but suddenly exploded to grab a 45-40 lead late in the contest. But veteran forward Bill McIntock sparked a last-ditch Bear comeback by twice stealing the ball. He and an effective full-court press saved the bacon for the Bears.

ELSEWHERE, THE Pacific Coast quintets walked the plank. College of Pacific received for its first setback when it fell before Wyoming, 59-50, at Laramie. Leroy Wright scored 15 for COP while Terry Hoppel paced the Cowboys with 19 markers.

UCLA lost a heartbreaker to Purdue as the Boilermakers surged back from a 14 point deficit to edge the Bruins, 75-74. Junior center John Berberich led the green UCLA club with 19 points. But Jerry Dischinger's 27

Indian Cagers Draw Tustin in Banning Tourney

Palm Springs High School Indians, with their first win under their belts this week, swing into action in the Banning Block Basketball Tournament which the Broncos stage every year during the holiday season, next Monday morning.

Their first opponent will be Tustin High.

THERE ARE SIXTEEN schools entered in the tournament which starts Monday and continues through Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, rests Friday, Christmas Day, and goes into the finals in all brackets Saturday, Dec. 26.

The Tribe took on larger schools in its first two games and the older, experienced Alumni in their third, losing all three. Tuesday they dropped back into their own class and romped over San Jacinto High 56-36.

SCHOOLS SENDING teams to the Banning tournament besides Palm Springs are Tustin, Banning, Beaumont, Yucaipa, Rubidoux, Calipatria, Mayer Dei, Valencia, Brawley, Holtville, Twentynine Palms, Hemet, Coachella Valley, Paramount and Eisenhower.

Banning High was won the tournament three times and is the defending champion.

Stengel Feelings Are 'Mixed-Up'

By JACK CUDDY

NEW YORK (UPI) — Sport parading with short steps: Casey Stengel had mixed feelings about the trade which sent pitcher Cal McLish from Cleveland to Cincinnati. A long-time admirer of McLish's ability, Stengel would have liked to see him come to the Yankees, but since they didn't get him, Casey was just as happy Cal moved out of the American League because he generally gave the Yanks fits.

months prior to his PGA victory 267.66 without ever picking up a single first prize check.

Minnie Minoso, recently traded back to the White Sox by the Indians, always likes to have some ready cash on hand. Some of his former teammates claim they have often seen him pin a couple of bills to the inside of his baseball uniform.

MORE AND more professional athletes are opening bowling alleys. Two of the latest to do so are Johnny Unitas and L. G. (Long Gone) Dupre of the Baltimore Colts.

Pitcher Ralph Terry of the Yankees, now undergoing basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., doesn't have to go far when he wants to talk baseball with someone. Outfielder Jim McAnany is stationed in the next barracks to him.

THE CINCINNATI Royals are having their troubles in the National Basketball Association but they feel they'll be in good shape if they can hold on until next season when they hope to land Oscar (Big O) Robertson, following his graduation from the University of Cincinnati.

Mountaineers Test 'Cats at Home'

United Press International

West Virginia's unbeaten Mountaineers venture into basketball's "Death Valley" tonight where they either can be ambushed by Kentucky or emerge champions of the season's biggest tournament so far.

The prize at stake is the Kentucky Invitational title which has been won four times in the last six years by the host Wildcats.

Third-ranked West Virginia moved into the final round of the tournament when it nipped sixth-ranked St. Louis, 87-86, in a hair-raising finish Friday night, while 13th ranked Kentucky upset fifth-ranked North Carolina, 76-70, in another opening round clash.

Despite the fact that the Mountaineers won their seventh straight game by beating the Billikens, the Wildcats are favored to night because they will be playing on their home floor at Lexington, Ky., a site invading rivals glumly refer to as "Death Valley."

By that, they mean it's tough for anyone to beat Kentucky there.

Reakes Wins at Arizona State

A 1958 Palm Springs High School graduate was today rated as the individual point leader in intramural athletics at Arizona State University at Tempe.

He is Richard Reakes, of Sunmead, who took the intramural lead with 22 points after winning tennis and ping pong matches.

New 'Kid Gavilan' Is Discovered

NEW YORK (UPI) — Benny (Kid) Paret of Cuba, upset conqueror of top welterweight contender Charley Scott, was hailed as "another Kid Gavilan" today.

Cuban Kid Gavilan was the welterweight crown from May 1951 to October 1954.

Matchmaker Teddy Brenner of Madison Square Garden, where Paret won the unanimous decision over Philadelphia Charley Friday night, declared: "Benny's got Gavilan's style, speed, aggressiveness and remarkable ruggedness. He's another Gavilan."

Becerra Bout Set

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — World bantamweight champion Jose Becerra of Mexico will defend his crown Feb. 4 against Alphonse Halimi of France, and promoters today could almost hear the cash register already ringing for a sell-out.

'No Room in Inn' To Be Sermon

"No Room in the Inn" is the subject chosen for his sermon on Sunday by Dr. Barclay Johnson, administrator of education for the Church of Religious Science of Los Angeles, when he conducts the Christmas services at the Plaza Theatre for the Church of Religious Science of Palm Springs. The Scriptural lesson is from St. Luke's Gospel, Chapter 2, verses 1 to 14, reading in part "And she brought forth her first-born son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn."

The Church of Religious Science meets every Sunday at the Plaza Theatre.

During the absence of organist Con Maffie, who is vacationing in Honolulu, special Christmas music will be provided this week by Larry Foy, well known local pianist, beginning 10:45 a.m. Services commence at 11. All are invited to attend.

ATOMIC ORIGIN TO BE DISCUSSED

The question, "Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" is considered in the Lesson-Sermon to be heard Sunday in all Christian Science churches.

Explaining the spiritual creation of man and the universe, the Golden Text quotes the prophet Isaiah (45:5, 12), "I am the Lord, and there is none else, there is no God beside me: . . . I have created man upon the earth, and created man upon it: even my hands, have stretched out the heavens, and all their host have I commanded."

The divine origin of Jesus is related from the first chapter of Luke's Gospel (2:33), "He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest; and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David: And he shall reign over the house of Jacob forever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" Mary Baker Eddy declares, "Jesus' spiritual origin and understanding enabled him to demonstrate the facts of being, —to prove irrefutably how spiritual Truth destroys material error, heals sickness, and overcomes death. The divine conception of Jesus pointed to this truth and presented an illustration of creation" (p. 315).

Church Sets All Activities For Christmas

PALM DESERT — "O Holy Night" will be the 11 a.m. sermon of Rev. Warren McClain of the Palm Desert Community Church, which will start several days of Christmas activities at the local church.

Alex Hammond, well known Palm Springs teacher and entertainer, will sing a solo entitled "Bethlehem" at the same services.

At 4 p.m., Sunday, the Christian Youth Fellowship will meet in the Sunday School building for a study program which will be "Date Etiquette."

The Sunday School Christmas Pageant will be held at 7 p.m., Sunday, in the church, and the children will do the "Christmas Story." Children will receive gifts and refreshments following the pageant.

Rev. McClain announced that on Tuesday night the Couples Club and Youth Fellowship Society will meet at the church and then go around the community caroling.

Choirs to Give Special Music At Services

CATHEDRAL CITY — Three choirs will present special music when Cathedral City Community Church observes Christmas Sunday at its 11 a.m. service Sunday.

Rev. James Arnold will deliver a sermon on "The Gift That Lasts."

The Cherub Choir will sing "How Great My Joy," a 17th Century carol, and the junior high and adult choirs will sing the anthem "Up and Wake Thee Peter Lad." Mrs. Robert Blauvelt will sing a soprano solo, "Jesu Bambino."

Rev. Arnold also announced that the Sunday Church School will present its annual Christmas program, "The Story of Christmas," at 7 p.m., Sunday.

The junior and junior choir departments will carol shut-ins following the program and will meet later at the home of their choir director, Miss Mary Hoover, for refreshments.

'This Day' to Be Sunday Sermon

INDIO — Christmas Sunday program at the Coachella Valley Christian Church, Avenue 50 and Jackson, will start at 9:30 a.m. with the children's program in the sanctuary.

At the 11 a.m. worship service, Dr. M. O. Kellison will use as his sermon topic, "This Day—In Coachella Valley." The sermon text will be, "Behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people, for there is born to you this day in the city of David, a Savior who is Christ the Lord."

"This Day," in the sermon topic, Dr. Kellison said, "refers to a day in Coachella Valley when every person should make his heart a manger for the indwelling of Jesus Christ. 'This Day' is today!"

In a pink champagne mood . . . was the first of the big black tie soirees held at Tennis Club Thursday night . . . when Kay and Dolph Obergfel hosted close to 200 friends at a gala holiday party . . . Because of the size of the party . . . the Obergfels took over the Bougainvillea Room . . . with seasonal pink poinsettias enhancing the natural pink glow of the beautiful room . . . The "Private Party" sign was out . . . and the smart affair filled the club with beautifully gowned women and escorts in dinner jackets . . . Cocktails were served from two bars . . . dancing was to the music of that delightful Tony Rose . . . and the menu featured squab stuffed with wild rice . . . accompanied by appropriate wines . . .

The party honored Helen and Walter Braunschweiger . . . the just-retired Bank of America executive . . . recently returned from Rome and New York where Helen had two successful showings of her paintings . . .

Actually it was a delayed party . . . originally planned two years ago when Kay flew east for Helen's first showing in New York . . . and was supposed to have been held in Manhattan . . . but illness prevented . . .

The guest of honor Helen Braunschweiger was wearing a Sam Winston model of white silk with aqua coin dots (in the new Parisian mode . . . 16 inches from the floor) . . . Kay Obergfel chose a chic black French crepe from Traina Norell . . . as was Dottie Buckingham's iridescent beaded gown . . . June Clark was wearing a black Don Loper gown . . . with white lace inserted bodice . . . Berniece LeBaron's gown was of floating green chiffon, yards and yards of it . . . Ginny Simms was lovely in an Italian cafe au lait satin with her favorite color light blue . . . Win-some Courtney chose a 3/4 length white Italian chiffon with chin-chilla cape . . . Jessie Oakes was stunning in a bouffant black Spanish lace with white lace top, trimmed with velvet bows and an exquisite sapphire and diamond clip . . .

Helen Kenaston was wearing a smoke gray Kunel . . . bouffant style with bugle beaded bodice . . . Joyce Singer was stunning in a Sophie model lace over five net petticoats . . . and wearing that Christmas diamond that is headlight size plus baguettes . . . Margaret Manasse was in very flattering violet shades . . .

The way I know . . . George Shaw who made this party before taking off to spend Christmas in Paris (I hate him for this) took notes . . .

Adding to the excitement at the party . . . Marjorie Rambeau and Ethel Luccarelli both arrived by ambulance . . . and were carried up those stairs in style . . . Pat Daugherty (of the Bonaires) flew in by electrojet . . . Don Eastvold flew down from Seattle in a chartered plane (he was a little late . . . midnightish) . . . Dr. Anne Marie Bennstrom drove over from the Golden Dood (looking like a Christmas tree angel . . . all in white) . . .

Just everyone was there it seemed . . . and I'm sure I never did see everyone . . . for it was wall-to-wall people . . . Ed and Edna Rothbart were there (Edna and Lillian McClure had their heads together about Sponsors Ball plans) . . . the Lou Manseau (Barney Hinkle put that holly wreath on Ruth's head) . . . Glimpsed Louise Nicoletti (she's back at her Thunderbird home) . . . the Frank Bogerts, Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Grow . . . Ruth Hardy (she has Christmas bouquets growing all around town . . . from those poinsettia clippings she gives away each year) . . . Maynard Laswell, George Barretts, Velma and Johnny Dawson . . . the Clarence Browns . . . those new grandparents Frank and Melba Bennett . . . Jacquie and Bill Otto . . . Dorothy and Harry Joe Brown, George Gannons, Glenn Austins, the Bill Codys, Joe Dyers, Chauncey Needhams, Georgina Poston, Peggy Lester, Bob Taliaferro . . . the Robert Morreys, Bertine Treat and John Saith, Jan King and Jim Hollowell, Pat Wright, Ray Ryan, Jimmy Morton, the Ed Schills, John Curci, Tom Powers (of the Bonaires) . . . Dolph Bremers, Walt Sibberts, Kay and Howard Morris, Emma Gale, Hank Ridder, Ray Shelby, B. J. San Chez, Buddy Bligh, George Wheelers . . .

The John Costellos, Joan McManus, Alan Maclean, the Ed Robbins . . . Vivian Davies, Ed McCoubrey, Harold Murphys, Ken Kirks . . . George Holsteins, Frank Hoys, Peg and Norm Waters . . . Corrine and Ted Grouya, Ernie Glaser, Danielle Nemeroff . . . Jacquie Cole, Bea and Oak Davis, Mary and Ken Evans, Clive Roberts, Frank Harper . . . and a lot of other people whose names got lost . . .

Still in the black tie mode . . . was last night's Deb Ball at the Tennis Club . . . and tomorrow's Christmas party at Vivian Davies Aquanetta Circle home . . . Tomorrow night too . . . Sam and Dixie Janis are hosting a "Christmas Skoals" party at their beautiful home on Cielo Drive . . . Tonight, of course . . . is El-dorado's informal opening . . . and the second night of Lee Berings' opening . . . Lee's new place is beautiful . . . and Muriel's decorations are delightful . . . but more about that later . . .

Rena and Bill Shillian (he's assistant regional manager for Standard Oil Company of California) of West Los Angeles . . . are at their Rancho Mirage home for the holidays . . . Here to spend the weekend with them are the Elmer Olesens of Los Angeles . . . He is also an Oil Company official . . . assistant to K. W. Kendrick regional vice president . . .

Teresa Fields . . . who was hospitalized for four weeks with a serious eye infection . . . has been convalescing at her Camino Descanso home . . . and is expecting her old friend Mrs. Forest Taylor . . . formerly of Detroit and New York . . . to spend the holidays with her . . .

Jaycees Hold Christmas Party and Dinner at Hilltop Room

Desert Skies Hilltop Room was a merry scene when almost 40 members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and their wives and guests gathered for their annual Christmas party.

Lighted candles and yuletide decorations made attractive centerpieces for the dinner tables. Prime rib and lobster was the choice of the evening including salad, soup and dessert.

Door prizes were awarded, followed by dancing to the music of Raoul and Gustavo.

Panhellenic Has Party

The picture window in the Smoke Tree diningroom, framing the matchless picture of desert and mountains, was the background for the December meeting of Coachella Valley Panhellenic. Christmas decorations carried the desert theme indoors, with "birdcage" (desert primrose) centerpieces, gay tablecloths and venetian blue crystal. Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Russell B. Perkins and Mrs. George Ripley of Palm Springs.

A short business meeting followed the buffet luncheon, with chairman reporting. Mrs. Edwin Monroe announced that the new directory will be published this month. Mrs. James H. O'Reilly, chairman of the scholarship committee.

Mrs. George Anderson reported on the fashion tea to be held at the Tennis Club on January 14. Reservations will be limited for the Spice Tea, which will present the fashions of Edith Morre's custom designer of Palm Desert, from 3 to 5 p.m. This will be the annual money raising event benefiting the Panhellenic scholarship fund, which each year enables an outstanding graduating senior girl of Coachella Valley to attend college.

Mrs. Russell B. Perkins announced the first of a series of bridge dinners, to be held at her home on December 28, at 7 p.m. Members wishing to make reservations may call FA 8-2377.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. Randall Henderson then introduced Mrs. F. W. Cockerill, who in turn introduced her guest Beverly Hanson, Alpha Phi from the University of North Dakota, and internationally known golf champion.

Outlining her career, Miss Hanson told how she became a golf enthusiast and then a champion. In 1950 she won the U. S. Amateur Championship, and the following year turned professional, doing public relations work.

Among those attending were Messrs. and Mmes. William Bronstein, Don Wexler, Fred Kline, John Martin, James Bigley, Rick Harrison, Ken Jackson, Bob Anderson, Dave Fisher, Larry Coulton, James Schlecht, William Foster, William Dzo Dzo, Louis Lombard, Pete Hall, John Stevenson, Bill Hanousek, Robert Price, Dr. and Mrs. Chet Baldwin and Dr. and Mrs. Wayne Huffman.

Mrs. James Schlecht and Mrs. Don Wexler were co-chairmen for the festive affair.

Match-Boxes for Place Cards

Dressed-up match boxes brighten place settings on a holiday table. Cover the boxes with red, green or white felt, but leave the striking surface uncovered. Put a dab of glue on top and sprinkle on glitter. Add more glue and perch a tiny wreath, caroler or tree on top. The figures are available at aircraft shops and dime stores.

Christmas Treat

Oasis Luncheon for Children

Planned for the day before Christmas is a special children's luncheon at the Oasis Hotel. There will be entertainment and Santa Claus will be there with a gift for each child. The delightful affair is not limited to hotel guests, but is open to Villagers.

During the Christmas season carol singers from Our Lady of Guadalupe Church will appear nightly, in front of the yule log in the lobby of the Oasis, starting Monday evening. They will sing from 6 to 7:30, so that those who gather for the cocktail hour and those enjoying an early dinner in the Golden Terrace dining room may hear the caroling.

Just arrived at Hotel Oasis to be present over both the Christmas and New Year holiday are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Garrett of Seattle, who are accompanied by their young people Robert and Cecile.

Frequent visitors Dr. and Mrs. M. V. Sarkisian of Sacramento, accompanied by their son, are also holidaying at Oasis. Here from Carleton College at Northfield, Minnesota, is Reginald D. Lang of the Department of Government and Industrial Relations.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Crawford (he is the former president of Barker Brothers and a brother of former Villager Ned Crawford) are resting at the Oasis until just before Christmas when they will return to Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hayes, frequent visitors from Los Angeles who spent the Thanksgiving holiday at Hotel Oasis and who have vacationed at the hotel since it was first built, are back to spend the Christmas-New Year holiday there.

Many of the Oasis's guests will journey into the Rose Bowl game in two special buses which have

South Pacific Room Opens

SONGBIRD OF THE ISLANDS and one of Palm Springs' favorite entertainers George Kainapau will return this season to the South Pacific Room at El Mirador, opening the night before Christmas, it was announced this week.

To Kainapau devotees the news that this Songbird of the Islands is coming back to Palm Springs is a fine Christmas present . . . for this sweet-voiced singer has a widespread popularity in the desert area where he has starred in so many luaus.

The romantic glamor of the South Pacific returns to Palm Springs, Wednesday night, December 23, with the opening of the famed South Pacific Room at El Mirador Hotel.

George Kainapau, singer of the soft, romantic, thrilling songs of The Islands, and his trio will be heard nightly throughout the season. A special added attraction to the Hawaiian music of Kainapau will be the lovely hula dancing of exciting Hawaiian dancer Tani Marsh.

South Pacific Room is located behind the pool patio area of El Mirador and for the convenience of motorists, the South Pacific Lane entrance to the hotel has been reopened. There is lots of parking in this area, and visitors may drive in the Hawaiian torch marked South Pacific entrance and park directly behind the South Pacific Room.

The back part of the room and entrance has been rebuilt with Hawaiian decor and torch lighting. The room itself has been completely refurbished and fire proofed throughout.

Exotic drinks are a specialty of the South Pacific Room's famed mixologists, while both Cantonese and American dinners are served there. Reservations are advisable for the opening night festivities.

Masonic Order Installs

William Bronstein was installed as Worshipful Master, when Palm Springs Lodge No. 693, F & AM held an open installation at Masonic Temple this week. His long time friend and business associate John P. Filbert, Past Master of Elysian Lodge in Los Angeles, acted as installing officer, while Marvin Wade, Past Master of Palm Springs Lodge was master of ceremonies. Retiring Worshipful Master John Spargur gave the opening address of welcome.

Other elected officers installed in the ceremony, were: Hiram Gordon, Senior Warden; Thor Frederickson, Junior Warden; Paul Clark, re-elected treasurer; and Henry Greeley, secretary (for the 14th year).

Appointive officers installed were: Larry Embree, Senior Deacon; Dr. Robert Bertrand, Junior Deacon; Jack Stuart, Marshal; Leslie Willey, Chaplain; Julius Edelstein, Senior Steward; Charles Davis, Junior Steward; Jack Hillery, organist; Joe Stuart, Tiler. Retiring Master John Spargur was presented with a Past Master's ring, on behalf of his fellow officers and other members of the lodge. William Bronstein received a "Master's hat" from his friends who had come down from Los Angeles for the installation.

Refreshments, of finger sandwiches and individual cakes in the shape of a Masonic apron, were served with coffee and punch.

A large group of Masons from Coachella Lodge attended the installation.

Mistletoe

Mistletoe, which means "all heal," was believed by the Druids to have magic powers to protect those who owned it. It was supposed to heal disease, prevent witchcraft, neutralize poisons, and bestow fertility. Sealing a betrothal with a kiss beneath the mistletoe assured a lifetime of happiness.

Not Much Greenery Evident for This Christmas Season

By JOYCE SCHULLER
United Press International
CHICAGO (UPI) — The green of the tree may be the only traditional color of the season in many homes this Christmas.

A spokesman for a maker of tree trimmings (Silvestri Art Manufacturing Co.) said even the traditional green tree is being replaced by artificial trees of many colors. But green still is the most wanted color, even in artificial trees, he added.

Most of this year's untraditional Christmas colors appear in tree ornaments. They are fuchsia, gold, seafoam green, pink, blue, violet, eggshell, aqua, chartreuse and clear glass.

The new clear glass ornaments are the most spectacular. Diamond-like, they come in shapes of fleur de lys, three-dimensional stars, bunches of grapes, roses and bells.

Tiny birthday-size candles inside light up the angels' wands, the bells' clappers and the stars' centers. Many lighted ornaments come in strings like tree lights. Also new for the tree are half-hollowed balls with sky-blue insides stuffed with cotton - wool clouds, and other balls that look like jumbo pearls. The pearl-like baubles, in eggshell or the white of freshwater pearls, come separately, like earrings, or in strings, like necklaces.

A touch of the Orient for the tree—giant balls wrapped in ribbons of many colors which come from China. More multi-colored tree trimmings have the shape of butterflies and the jeweled look of giant brooches.

Several manufacturers and retailers said the non-traditional ornaments were created because people wanted something new for Christmas. But traditionalists can take heart. In a few years, traditional tree trimmings probably will look new again.

Vitamins Vanish Too Easily

KINGSTON, R. I. (UPI) — The vanishing vitamin is a real problem in the American kitchen today, says James Bromley, University of Rhode Island consumer education specialist.

Some vitamins are lost when we discard the water in which vegetables are cooked. Heat destroys vitamins, too. And nutrients often are lost when fruits and vegetables are not stored properly.

Bromley suggested these rules for safeguarding vitamins: Don't crush or bruise fruits or vegetables.

Don't soak them in water. Keep them in the refrigerator until ready to use.

Use as soon as possible after preparation.

Cook quickly in boiling water, using as little water as possible.

Use water in which you cook vegetables for soups, sauces and gravies.

White poster paint thinned slightly with liquid detergent decorates windows smoothly and washes off easily. It gives a frosty effect to designs such as wreaths, snowflakes, stars or snowmen.

Festive Fresh Date Treats

Delight visitors with a snack tray of cheese and fresh California dates stuffed with both sweet and savory fillings. "Date Fancies" are stuffed with a flavorful mixture of ground semi-sweet chocolate, candied ginger, nuts and a little orange marmalade, and topped with almond or pecan halves. For those who prefer savory fillings, stuff fresh dates with grated sharp cheese or with paper-thin slices of ham or prosciutto. A mild cream cheese also makes an excellent stuffing for California dates.

The cheese-and-ham-stuffed dates should be eaten the day they are made. The other date goodies may be made ahead, covered and stored in the refrigerator to keep them from drying out.

For "Date Fancies," put 1/2 cup nuts and 1/2 cup semi-sweet chocolate pieces through food chopper, using a fine blade. Combine with 1 tablespoon finely chopped candied ginger, 3 tablespoons orange marmalade and 1/2 teaspoon salt, stirring until mixture is evenly moistened. To prepare 1 (10-ounce) package pitted fresh California dates for stuffing, slit sides with sharp knife and press open. Stuff with chocolate-nut mixture. If desired, top each stuffed date with a pecan or blanched almond half.

Makes about 2 1/2 dozen stuffed dates.

Light Holidays: The Safe Way

CHICAGO (UPI) — Lighting engineers (General Electric) have come up with suggestions for safer outdoor Christmas lighting.

Use a weatherproof plug-in outlet placed OUTSIDE the house to supply current to outdoor lighting displays. Existing outdoor outlets, such as porch fixtures, yard lights, entrance lights and post lanterns, also are suitable. It is dangerous to connect outdoor lights to indoor outlets by running wires through doors and windows.

Flexible extension cords used outdoors should be suitable for use in wet locations and should be large enough to carry the load without overheating. Plugs, current-taps, and other attachments should be weather-resistant. Non-weatherproofed plugs and connectors should be protected by wrapping rubber sheeting around them.

Inspect all equipment before use, and repair or replace if damaged. Before putting up lights, stretch them on the ground and connect to an outlet to spot burned-out lamps before they are installed. Use only new lamps in sockets that are to be mounted in hard-to-reach places.

Cords and wires likely to be rained on should be arranged so that water running down their drip loops will be diverted away from sockets and other attachments.

After the lights are operating smoothly, make a drawing of how the wires run, the connections, the number of lamps, etc. The drawing, plus color photos, will come in handy next year.

Australians Enjoying Desert

Mrs. Faye Kennebeck, formerly of Sydney, Australia and now a Palm Desert resident, has been showing the desert area to fellow Australians. Mrs. Kennebeck has been giving the "grand tour" to her two houseguests, Mrs. George Appelgate and Miss Valerie Donly. Mrs. Appelgate is also formerly of Sydney but makes her home in Brentwood now. Miss Donly is vacationing here from Australia and plans to return home on the SS Monterey the 17th of January.

One of the local highspots they have visited is The Beachcomber where they enjoyed cocktails and dinner. Mrs. Kennebeck plans to take her guests to Shadow Mountain Club and Indian Wells Country Club before they return to Los Angeles.

Sigma Gamma Sorority Has Yule Party at Hillstrands

A beautiful ceiling-high Christmas tree decorated the South Hillstrand, where Sigma Gamma Chapter held its annual Christmas party.

Hilarity reigned the entire evening while the games and entertainment went on, all cleverly arranged by Eleanor Noyes and Marie Ford. The most amusing of all were the Constance Bannister baby pictures Eleanor Noyes had prepared with appropriate captions for each member.

Marta Scott received a long distance call from her former sorority sisters in San Francisco right in the middle of the festivities. They were also having a Christmas party, and from the noise at both ends of the wire the half-hour conversation must have sounded quite garbled. Anyway Marta got to tell each one about her recent operation. Secret sister's names were revealed when gifts were exchanged by Santa Claus Barbara Hillstrand. But the biggest revelation of all was when Marge Hayes' husband emerged from the den carrying the tape recorder he had kept going since the beginning of the party without anyone knowing it.

Refreshments were served to guests including Marta Scott, Marie Ford, Eleanor Noyes, Marge Hayes, Amelia Irvine, Eleanor Lennox, Payne Pritchett, Millie Brechlin, Millie Herbert, Lucille Fostvedt, Helen Goundry, Sally Givens and her mother, Mrs. John Milne, and Lee Wenzlick.

The next meeting on January 5th will be held at the home of Helen Goundry.

New Members Inducted by Soroptimists

Seven new members were inducted into the Soroptimist Club at its Tuesday luncheon at the Desert Inn.

Sally Daniels, regional treasurer, was introduced by Elsa Addes, and officiated at the induction of new members, Virgie Dragicevich, Angie Martins, Manci Elias, Ethel Clark, Beth Grant, Eve Russell and Nellie Mae Bower.

Mrs. Daniels instructed the seven new members with information about the purpose of the Club, and told each to adopt a slogan pertaining to her business affiliation. Each received an individual corsage in the Club colors of blue and gold, from Elsa Addes, as they were introduced.

A program of songs by a group of pupils of past president, Mrs. Wynne Hammond, was presented. President Trixie Jarrette presided over the meeting and Lucille Johnson acted as program chairman. Special guest was Kay Harper.

The next meeting of the club will be a Christmas party on the 22nd at which time there will be an exchange of Christmas gifts and a food sale between members.

Family Plans Home Christmas

Excitement runs high in the Tamarisk Road home of Dr. and Mrs. Cecil Jones who are planning to spend a Christmas at home with their four young children, Ann, Mark, Barbara and Casey, who are finding it pretty difficult to wait for Christmas.

The doctor's mother, Mrs. Cecil

C. Jones will be coming out from Twin Falls, Idaho, the first of the year to spend a month.

Edward Smalls Host Dinner Party
Honoring New York Houseguests
The Edward Smalls entertained Saturday evening at a small informal dinner party at their home on Via Lola honoring their houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. Moses Rothman who recently returned from an eight week trip round the world. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Goldwyn and Mr. and Mrs. David Rose.
The Rothmans (he is with the foreign department of United Artists) left Thursday for their home in New York. "Solomon and Sheba," latest Edward Small production, starring Yul Brynner and Gina Lollobrigida, opens Christmas day at the Fox Wilshire Theater in Los Angeles.
Home From School For Holidays
Barbara Ann Thompson arrived Friday evening from Marymount School in Los Angeles to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Thompson of 751 Prescott Drive.
The Thompsons' other daughter, Mrs. William Breger of New York, who has been spending weekends with them while she attends Chouinard Art Institute in Los Angeles, will spend Christmas with her husband in New York.
Pre-Holiday Cocktail Party At Bossel Home
A pre-holiday cocktail party was held at the home of Miss Charlotte Bossell, 574 Roxbury Drive, Palm Springs. Novel invitations requesting the attendance of those people who "would care to join a select group who appreciate the finer things in life" were the topic of much discussion by those who came.
Cocktails and hors d'oeuvres, ranging from "flying sardines" to "broil-your-own" cocktail weiners, were served. Coffee and pastries replaced the proverbial "one-for-the-road" before the guests departed.
Guests included Messrs. and Mrs. Larry Coulton, David Fisher, Jerry Friedman, Richard Pell, Stephen Platt; Misses Valerie Pell and Marsha Rosenbaum; and Messrs. Richard Hetzel, Fred Klein, and Donald Levy.
In San Francisco For Christmas
The Keith Hayes family left this morning with their three daughters, Kathy, Marge and Nancy to spend Christmas in San Francisco with Mr. Hayes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hayes, and will also visit Mrs. Hayes' parents.

tives Association will bring component and test equipment manufacturers together with distributors to chart course for better business, more business in 1960. Stone is coordinating chairman of the event.

Dear Abby...

...by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I are the proud grandparents of three adorable little grandchildren. I don't mind being called "Grandma" — but my husband says he is only 55 years old and he is too young to be called "Grandpa." He asks the grandchildren to call him "Earl."

I think it sounds terrible for those little youngsters to go around calling their grandfather EARL.

My husband says that if it is all right for President Eisenhower's grandchildren to call him IKE — our grandchildren can call him EARL. I'd like to know if President Eisenhower's grandchildren really call him IKE?

EARL'S WIFE
DEAR WIFE: I wired the White House and received the following message:

DEAR MISS VAN BUREN: IN REPLY TO YOUR TELEGRAPHIC INQUIRY, THESE ARE THE FACTS: THE PRESIDENT'S GRANDCHILDREN CALL HIM "IKE" AND ALSO "GRAND-DADDY IKE."

WITH BEST WISHES,
MRS. A. W.,
Associate Press
Secretary to the President.

DEAR ABBY: From my kitchen window I can see a certain laundry man go into a lady's back door. He keeps the engine running in his truck, but he stays in there for about forty-five minutes. It can't be business because he goes in with nothing and comes out with nothing and I happen to know that this lady does her own laundry because I see it on her line.

This woman is married and has children in school. There has been some talk about her, too. I am sure the lady and the laundry man are not just holding hands. What do you think?

STEADY READER
DEAR STEADY: Hold your tongue. Whether he is there for "business" is not MY business — nor is it yours. I think you ought to send your mind to the laundry.

What's your problem? For a personal reply, write to ABBY, care of The Desert Sun. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

ELECTRONICS MEET SLATED IN VILLAGE

A Palm Springs Conference which will bring electronic distributors from Southern California into direct contact with the manufacturers whose products they sell has been set up by the Electronic Representatives Association of this area for Feb. 18 to 21.

According to Rick Stone, conference committee chairman, the event, first of its kind in the West, will attract over 125 manufacturers of electronic components and test equipment, 350 distributors and 75 representatives.

TO BEHOLD AT El Mirador Hotel, the conference will bring each distributor into a series of planned interviews with the manufacturers he wishes to see.

"We believe the mutual exchange of ideas," Stone said, "will help everyone achieve his goal of more business and better business during 1960."

Working with Stone on the conference are: Jack Carter, division chairman, Jack Berman and Norm Marshank, assisting Rick Stone on the coordinating committee; Russ Broman, advertising; Bob Mueller and Irv Stern, publicity and promotion; Dave Marshank, Bert Knight and Leon Ungar, entertainment; George Davis, Henry Feldman and Neil Hales, housing; and Syd Jurin, conference administration.

SOCIAL HIGHLIGHTS of the conference are a get-acquainted cocktail party, Hawaiian luau, Western steak fry, and golf tournament.

A fashion show and brunch as well as a trip to a lodge for lunch have been arranged for the wives who will attend.

The total value of insurance premiums paid in Puerto Rico has gone up 144 per cent in the last 10 years — from 14 million dollars in 1949 to more than 34 million this year.
